

Your success is our success at Lux Wireless.

Wireless Dealer Magazine had a conversation with co-owners of Lux Wireless, Jennel & Sean Davis, where the focus was on their determination to achieve the family dealer experience. Give an ear to what they had to say.

At Lux Wireless, we provide great products and high margins and excellent service.

We have everything you need from impact screens and total phone protection to chargers, cases, tempered glass, Bluetooth speakers and headsets.

Lux Wireless is POS Ready: Saving you time and money by loading your inventory directly into your operating systems. Lux Wireless is a perfect partner for any dealer or repair shop that wants great quality products with high margins.
